BRAND NEW STAR

Todayscountry94one would like to help a budding young country music performer take the first step to becoming a star. The Central Coast's only all country music radio station is sponsoring a scholarship to enable a performer to free entry into the hugely sought after CMAA Australian Academy of Country Music in Tamworth. Previous graduates include Brooke & Samantha McClymont and Sara Storer. The scholarship, worth $3,000 will entitle the winner to attend the two week residential music program, which will run from 25 June to 9 July 2010.

The successful applicants will take part in the heats on Friday 19 February and Friday 26 February with five from each heat making up the top ten to go through to the final on Friday 5 March 2010 at the fabulous Quattro Restaurant. Judges will be some of Australia's biggest country music stars, including Adam Harvey and Gina Jeffreys and multi award winning producer and musician, Rod McCormack.

In addition to the $3,000 scholarship the winner will receive a one song recording at the Music Cellar Studio, produced by Rod McCormack, delivered as a production master ready for manufacturing plus an appearance (one song) with Adam Harvey at The Entrance Country Music Festival in March 2010 and 12 months support and airplay on todayscountry94one.

Entry is open to anyone between the ages of 15 and 35 years and the cost is $30. Entries close at 4.00 pm on Monday 15 February 2010 and applicants will be notified if they are successful in qualifying for the heats by 5.00 pm on Tuesday 16 February 2010.

Each applicant is allowed one accompanist (no bands) and will perform one song.

Email entries to admin@todayscountry94one.com. Entries must be accompanied by an mp3 of one song (or CD in the mail), a bio and photo or post to
